My Own Rule Book

In this activity, students visualize good behavior. They will demonstrate an understanding of the rules by creating images of people following them.

Skills: reading, color recognition, scissor cutting, self awareness, socialization

1. Print pages 1-3 for the 3 core rules, or 1-5 for all.
2. Students draw examples of people following each of the rules.
3. Students cut along the dotted line.
4. Stapling , or other binding methods, turn the loose pages into a book.
