

My Own Rule Book

Illustrated by

My Own Rule Book

In this activity, students visualize good behavior. They will demonstrate an understanding of the rules by creating images of people following them.

Skills: reading, writing, color recognition, scissor cutting, self awareness, socialization

1. Print pages 1-3 for the 3 core rules, or 1-5 for all.
2. Students write the rules on each page
 - a. Display the “with text” version for students to copy.
3. Students draw examples of people following each of the rules.
4. Students cut along the dotted line.
5. Stapling , or other binding methods, turn the loose pages into a book.